Letter from the President of the Coastal Shag Club

Dear Shaggers,

I got a real medical scare last week! I kept switching back and forth between emotional highs and lows. I would experience periods of real euphoria and then go right into the depths of depression. During periods of lucidity, I tried to determine if I was developing a bi-polar condition. Then, I thought perhaps it was those special mushrooms my son sent me from the hills of Asheville that I sprinkled on my salad. According to my son, he didn't send me "those" mushrooms.

Finally, I had an epiphany. April 15th was just a week away. The IRS was just waiting to hear from me. That certainly would explain the source of my blues. So what was causing the "highs"? Wait a minute! It's April 9th. That's the first day of SOS! Spring Break for Seniors. Well, there you have it. An explanation for my mood swings has been uncovered.

Now, who in their right mind would schedule two events that create such pleasure and pain for the same time frame? How diabolical is that? My emotional state was like a yo-yo. That is until I realized it was the perfect scheduling genius. Once I pushed myself away from those infernal "Schedules" and other assorted forms and ventured down to Main Street, my IRS blues became a thing of the past. I got caught up in the great music and dancing and all was right with the world!

So, if you find yourself down in the dumps over what April 15th brings, step away from the calculator and get yourself down to NMB and Spring Safari! Then, finish up the week by taking in the Spring Safari Parade and our dance Saturday night!!!

See you there,
Gary
