A Message from our President...

Greetings Fellow Shaggers,

We invite you to join us at our membership appreciation Thanksgiving dinner/dance on November 23. The menu is turkey with sides and dessert. This is our way of saying thank you to everyone who supports the Coastal Shag Club. The winning ticket for the Bahama cruise will be drawn at the dance. You may still purchase your ticket right up until the winner is drawn.

Our January dance will be our "reup" dance instead of in November. Please plan to renew your membership or join for the first time on January 18. Our dues are changing. All membership dues will be $30.00 per person plus $5.00 at the door for each dance attended. The cost for guests will be $5.00 for guests who are members of another ACSC sanctioned shag club and $8.00 for everyone else. We welcome everyone.

We need everyone's help! The Elks Club administration has requested that we NOT put anything on the dance floors. This includes any powder or corn starch.

We are working with the Elks to try and improve the condition of the floor. Please help us by doing as they have requested.

We are excited to announce that Gary Tilley, our Vice President, will take over updating our Facebook page. This may involve removing the old page and revealing an exciting new one. Please be patient as we make some changes. Thank you to everyone who has helped to distribute the CSC news and pictures in the past.

We want to send condolences to Julie Rogers, a founding club member, on the passing of her father. Please keep Julie and her husband Mike in your prayers.

Our greeters this month will be Gary and Patty Tilley. Raffle tickets will be sold by Sonny and Debbie Gentry. Thank you to our volunteers.

See you on the dance floor.

Dean
